Dear Parishioner,

I hope everyone got through the storm without too much damage. If you'd like to help the victims of the storm, there are two good options: First, send a check to Catholic Relief Services. Or you can send a check to the Knights of Columbus. Our local Knights are working with a Knight chapter closer to the damage to help the victims there. For more information, contact our Knights of Columbus chapter.

Speaking of the Knights, they are again hosting our seminarians for a cookout at noon this Saturday (October 19th) on our school grounds. Our Women's Guild is providing desserts for the event. All are invited to come and meet the future priests of our diocese.

Let's remember that hurricane season doesn't end until the end of November, so we're not out of the woods yet. Make sure you keep your hurricane supplies up to date and be prepared to help each other through what storms may come.

Don't forget to appreciate God's gifts in your life. They are many, and God made them just for YOU!

Keep safe.

Devotedly,
Fr. Michael Grady
