

Dear Parish Family,

This Sunday, we hear Jesus say to His disciples: “The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few.” As He looked upon the crowds, His heart was moved with compassion because they were like sheep without a shepherd.

The same compassion of Christ continues today. He sees our joys, struggles, fears, and hopes, and He never ceases to care for us. Through His Church, He calls each of us to be part of His mission—not only priests and religious, but every baptized believer.

As we gather for the Eucharist this weekend, let us pray for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life, and let us also ask ourselves: How is the Lord calling me to serve? The harvest remains plentiful, and Christ continues to send His disciples into the world as witnesses of His love.

May this Sunday renew in us a missionary spirit, a generous heart, and a deeper trust in the Lord who never stops caring for His people.

Have a blessed Sunday.

In Christ’s peace,

Fr. Rolando
