

Dear Parish Family,

Happy Pentecost!

Today we celebrate the great gift of the Holy Spirit descending upon the apostles, filling them with courage, wisdom, and zeal to proclaim the Good News. Pentecost reminds us that the Church was not born in fear, but in faith; not in silence, but in mission. The same Spirit who transformed frightened disciples into joyful witnesses is alive and at work in us today.

In a world that often feels divided, anxious, and uncertain, the Holy Spirit comes as our guide, comforter, and source of strength. He gives us the courage to speak words of hope, the wisdom to make good choices, and the love to serve one another with generous hearts. Pentecost is not just an event we remember—it is a gift we continue to receive.

May we open our hearts anew to the fire of the Holy Spirit and pray: “Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.” May that fire renew our parish community and inspire us to live as joyful disciples of Christ.

Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed Pentecost!

Fr. Rolando